(1) GENERAL

1.1 AUB, through the Bournemouth Film School (BFS), has agreed to establish BFS Funding Futures, which is a scheme to support the development of our alumni, and the wider creative community, in the making of films, live performances or hybrid projects.

1.2 BFS Funding Futures has made every effort to ensure that the information presented is accurate at the time of publication. We reserve the right to review, suspend or cancel the scheme, or to revise the associated policies, if this becomes necessary through unforeseen circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

1.3 If BFS Funding Futures has reason to believe there has been a breach of these terms and conditions, it may, at its sole discretion, reserve the right to exclude those deemed responsible for this breach from participating in the competition.

(2) APPLICATION

2.1 Submissions of the application and supporting documents opens from 8th October 2024 15.00 (GMT) and closes 26th November 2024 23.59 (GMT). This closing date may be extended if BFS Funding Futures deems this to be appropriate.

2.2 Only one application per 'Director' may be submitted.

2.3 Applications must be submitted using the entry form. All applications must be supported by the materials referred to in the entry form.

2.4 There is no entry fee.

2.5 Entries must be completed in the English language.

2.6 The entry form includes the core information about the proposal. BFS Funding Futures may request additional information from applicants where this is necessary to reach a final decision about the application.

2.7 All applications are made at the applicant's own risk. BFS Funding Futures will not be liable for loss, damage or costs arising directly or indirectly from the application process.

2.8 BFS Funding Futures will not process applications which are incomplete, or which do not comply with these guidelines. It is therefore essential that applicants review the entry form and supporting documents carefully prior to submission.

2.9 If your application has been previously declined by any BFS Funding Futures scheme, unless there has been substantial evidence of a significant change to your original proposal, you will not be able to resubmit.

(3) ELIGIBILITY

3.1 The Alumni Fund is open to:

- » All alumni from the Bournemouth Film School (at AUB) collection of courses/disciplines. These include Film Production; Animation Production; Visual Effects (VFX) for Film & Television; Performance Design & Film Costume; Costume; Make-up for Media & Performance; Acting; Dance; Creative Writing
- » The Alumni Fund is also open to alumni filmmakers of prior designations of Arts University Bournemouth: Arts University College Bournemouth; Arts Institute Bournemouth; Bournemouth & Poole College of Art & Design

3.2 There can be a maximum of 4 Lead team members. One Lead Team Member must be nominated as the Lead Applicant. The Lead Applicant must be Alumni & ideally the role of Producer.

3.3 The Lead Applicant must reside in the United Kingdom. The remaining Lead Team members do not need to reside in the United Kingdom.

3.4 Head of Department (HoD) roles (Director, Producer, Writers, DoP, Production Designer, Sound Recordist, Editor, Post-Sound, Costume Designer, Lead Make-up etc.) should ideally be made up of Alumni.

3.5 A maximum of 4 HoD roles (excluding Producer) can be populated by Non-Alumni. Applications with a higher proportion of AUB alumni will be considered favourably when reaching funding decisions.

3.6 There is no limit to Non-Alumni in roles beyond HoD.

3.7 Non-Alumni and their roles should be clearly identified in the application.

3.8 Successful applicants will be required to open a number of trainee and minor-roles to current students of Bournemouth Film School (at AUB).

(4) THE AWARD

4.1 The winner of the Funding Award will receive £5,000 and the following in-kind contributions:

- » Access to equipment throughout June 2025 (for a maximum of 7 days)
- » Access to post-production facilities throughout July & August 2025.

The schedule for each of these contributions must be agreed by AUB prior to commencement of the project.

4.2 Refer to section 5 for investment details and payment schedule.

(5) INVESTMENT

5.1 BFS Funding Futures will not pay any funding or provide in-kind support until it has received a completed copy (signed) of the funding agreement and any conditions precedent to that agreement have been satisfied or waived by BFS Funding Futures.

5.2 BFS Funding Futures will release the funds in two stages; 90% prior to production, 10% after delivery of the finished film. Payment is subject to the awardee meeting the required deliverables at each stage as set by the funding agreement.

5.3 The number of awards made by BFS Funding Futures is at its discretion.

5.4 BFS Funding Futures will publicise the award(s) made. This information will include the name of the successful applicant, award amount, project name and project details.

5.5 BFS Funding Futures must be the sole funding body, however additional third party sources of finance, match funding and sponsorship is permitted and should be stated in the application.

(6) ASSESSMENT & SCHEDULE

6.1 After the closing date, a Selection Panel will select up to 5 projects to shortlist for the Funding Award. Feedback for unsuccessful applicants is not guaranteed and, if given, at the discretion of Funding Futures.

6.2 The shortlisted entrants will be invited to an online interview. The Lead Team as identified in the application will be expected to pitch their idea to the Awarding Panel and discuss the project in more detail.

6.3 At each stage of assessment, the panel(s) will be judging the applicants and projects with the following criteria:

- » Scripts no longer than 12 pages
- » Original Fiction works only
- » Ideas that demonstrate inclusivity of a range of Bournemouth Film School courses/disciplines
- » Projects that include teams that are inclusive of a range of Bournemouth Film School courses/disciplines
- » No resubmission of previously declined projects unless there has been substantial evidence of significant change to the original proposal. Significant change would typically be a change of director, or significant rewrite of material with a different writer.
- » Originality & Innovation – The Project demonstrates ingenuity when utilising the range of BFS disciplines & technologies to tell stories that capture audiences' imaginations in a fresh way
- » Community & Diversity – The Project reverberates at its core an emphasis on engaging with a diverse range of people in the making and telling of the film as well as a spotlight on voices & stories we need to hear now
- » Viability & Sustainability – The Project is achievable and considered with its impact and footprint on the planet

6.4 The decision of the Awarding Panel is final.
